

03/21/2012 - ATIN- Florida Recovery Center, a cutting edge addiction treatment center, alcohol rehab and drug rehab renowned for its highly evidence-based, medical model of treatment has gained approval to open a new 160 bed residential center, a major addictions center facility build out. Associated with the University of Florida, which is a top location for the training of addiction medicine specialists, Gainesville-based Florida Recovery Center will be converting what used to be a Marriott Residence Inn into a residential addiction treatment center. Florida Recovery Center is known for its specialty addiction treatment for medical and health industry personnel. Gainesville has been a hotbed of addictions center expansion lately, as Meridian Behavioral Healthcare Services also recently purchased a former hotel, which is also to be converted into an addiction treatment center. Florida Recovery Center, which is part of the University of Florida Shands health system, late last year opened a specialty center for the treatment of eating disorders.

Read More Newswire Stories

GOT ADDICTION INDUSTRY NEWS? tell us...

ted@treatmentmagazine.com

561-702-4235