Nationally renowned Silver Hill Hospital, a nearly 90-yr-old private psych hospital with a storied history, has appointed a new president and medical director. Dr Andrew Gerber was recruited from the famed Austin Riggs Center in Massachusetts, where he was CEO and medical director.

Dr. Gerber's appointment at Silver Hill is one of the most prestigious positions in American psychiatry and behavioral health. He is a Harvard med school grad, with a long list of behavioral health and psychiatric bona fides, including associate and adjunct professorships at Yale and Columbia.

Silver Hill Hospital admits more than 3,000 adolescents and adults annually for disorders that include addiction, depression, bipolar disorder, eating disorders, personality disorders and schizophrenia among others.

The hospital sits on a unique suburban campus, 44 acres in New Canaan.
